DEATH OF CAPT. MUSHBACH.

Captain George A. Mushbach.

For several weeks past had been critically ill at his home on north Washington street, died at 11 o'clock last night. The deceased had not enjoyed good health for a long time, he having suffered from a stroke of paralysis, but the stroke, as is generally the case, was not the beginning of the end. Other troubles followed and his former robust constitution weakened gradually until, unable to leave his room, his friends realized that the end was a matter of a short time. He leaves a widow, who was Miss Eva Gwynn, but no children.

Captain Mushbach had long been one of Alexandria's most brilliant lawyers and public men, and was probably one of the most generally known through the State, having served several years in the Legislature both as a member of the House of Delegates and the State Senate. He was born in New Jersey in January, 1850, and was a grandson of the late Senator Edsall, of that State, owner of Edsall's Hill, near this city. He came to Alexandria with his mother, brother and sister when a boy, and had resided here ever since. After having graduated from the law at the University of Virginia, he came to Alexandria and was admitted to the bar. He soon became a prominent practitioner, and with the late M. D. Ball and subsequently with the late C. W. Wadsworth was honored with a liberal share of practice. Later the partnership having been dissolved, he continued the business, his practice in the meantime growing year by year. He was at one time Commonwealth's Attorney for Alexandria county. He was elected a member of the Common Council early in the seventies and subsequently a member of the House of Delegates. Later he represented this district in the State Senate. While a member of the Common Council in 1876 there was an embargo between the legislative branch of the city government and the late Dr. J. B. Johnson, who was Mayor at the time. Mr. Mushbach took exception to something said by the Mayor and an altercation between the two followed which resulted in a police court trial. The effort caused considerable comment at the time between the friends of the belligerents. The deceased was for years Captain of the Alexandria Light Infantry, during which time he labored assiduously to make that organization the crack company of the State. Captain Mushbach was a man of vigorous intellect, well-read and forcible in expression, and while a member of the Legislature was regarded as one of the most prominent in the body. He was spoken of as a formidable candidate for Attorney General and had many admirers in Alexandria and throughout the 8th Congressional district who would have rejoiced to have seen him elected a Congressman. Among other honors conferred upon him, he was appointed five consecutive years a member of the board of visitors to the deaf, dumb and blind institution at Staunton, and was one year a member of the board of visitors to Mount Vernon. By his death two of Alexandria's brilliant lawyers and useful and successful citizens have passed away within three days. Mr. A. W. Armstrong having died last Tuesday.

Captain Mushbach was a member of Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, and was president of the Bachelors Club. The latter organization will meet tomorrow to take suitable action in respect to his memory. A meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry veterans, those who were in service with the organization and up to the time the captain severed his connection with the company, will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Armory Hall to take action in reference to his death and to make arrangements for attending the funeral. At the meeting of the Bar Association Col. F. L. Smith was elected chairman and Mr. Gardner L. Booth secretary. After a few appropriate remarks by Col. Smith on motion Judge Norton ordered that three be appointed to draft suitable resolutions and a report. The following were appointed on that committee: Messrs. K. Kemper, John M. Johnson and James R. Catot. The meeting then adjourned until Monday at 10 o'clock a. m. A committee consisting of Messrs. G. D. Johnson, Wm. E. Fendall and Douglas Stuart was appointed to procure floral offerings. It was decided to attend the funeral in a body.

MUSICAL.—The special musical at the M. E. Church South tomorrow will be as follows: Morning service: Sing, Oh Sing, This Blessed Morn, Fugue, Christians Awake, Salute the Happy Morn, Schaefer; We Have Seen His Star in the East, Simper; The Hush of Night Hath Fallen, Spence, and a solo, O Little Town of Bethlehem, Schaefer. Choir: Sopranos, Mrs. De Dier, Misses Watkins and Lindsay, and Mrs. Branner; altos, Misses Driscoll, Pollard and Cockey; tenors, Messrs. Wilkins, Netherland and Ogden; basses, Messrs. Riswell, Dinwiddie, Gaines and Myers; organist, Miss Thomas; director, Mr. Field.

The following is the programme for the Christmas celebration of the Washington Trust M. E. Church South to be held on Monday evening at 8 o'clock: Song by school; prayer, song, by school; solo, "Long Ago a Midnight Strain," Mr. Jno. D. Duffy; reading, by Prof. Willoughby Beale; collection; solo, "Night of Nights," Miss Pollard; reading, by Prof. Beale; solo, "The Wanderer," by Mr. Duffy; song, by school.

Dr. Bull's Celebrated Pills cures many ills. One pill a dose. Box, 50 pills, 10 cts. Cure Constipation, Liver Troubles, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, and Poor Blood, Female Complaints, Stomach and Bowel Disorders. Dr. Bull's Pills never gripe. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

THE MARKET.—There was no special feature in the market this morning. As is generally the case on Saturday after Christmas, but few country people were present, but the number of buyers was correspondingly limited. There was a sorry display of country produce, but it was ample for the demand, and prices were about unchanged.

STRUCK BY AN ENGINE.—This morning while Dr. T. M. Hopkins, colored, was driving near the corner of Wilkes and Alfred streets his buggy was struck by a shilling engine and almost demolished. The horse was slightly injured, but Dr. Hopkins escaped unhurt. The accident caused some excitement in the neighborhood.

AT GRACE CHURCH tomorrow full Christmas

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Nettie Donnelly Brill entertained the members of the choir of St. Mary's Church at her residence on Duke street last night.

The Misses Marshall, daughters of Mr. John A. Marshall entertained a large number of friends at a dinner which was given at their residence on Wolfe street yesterday evening.

Miss Annie Bevelley, of Orange, Va., and Miss Alice Hagley, of Charleston, West Va., are visiting Miss Helen Wood on north Columbus street.

Miss Mary Stratton, of Lynchburg, is spending the holidays with relatives in this city.

Mr. Henry H. Kelly is visiting his mother in Lynchburg.

Mr. Harry F. Woot, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is convalescing.

Miss Ella Porter and brother, Mr. Paul Porter, who have been the guests of friends in Fredericksburg, have returned to their winter home in Washington.

Miss Reba Barrett, who has been the guest of Miss Annie Fleming in Fredericksburg, has returned to her home in this city.

Miss Beall Dalgemeyer last night very prettily entertained a number of her little friends at her home on Washington street.

A rumor, apparently without foundation, was circulated this evening to the effect that Rev. H. J. Outler had been killed by the electric cars on Payne street.

Mr. Craig Anley continues critically ill with pneumonia. He was seriously ill from typhoid fever recently, from the effects of which he had not entirely recovered when he was prostrated by pneumonia.

Mr. John R. Edlin, a native Alexandrian, is in the city on a visit to relatives and friends. Mr. Edlin has been living in lower Maryland for several years past.

The Ladies' Club met yesterday evening at the residence of Mrs. Henry Robertson where the visitors were most charmingly entertained. The prizes were won by Miss Ruby Harton, of California, and Mrs. W. R. Purvis.

Capt. W. H. Smith continues seriously ill at his home on Alfred street.

Mr. Allen W. Moore continues seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Ida M. Adams, who was seriously hurt by falling from a car in Washington some weeks since, is ill confined to her room from the effects of her injuries.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.—One of the merriest social events of the merry happy Christmas was a juvenile party given last evening at the residence of Mr. J. E. Kidwell on St. Asaph street.

Miss Rose and master Foster Kidwell with Miss Susie Johnson of Portsmouth welcomed their little guests. "Merry Christmas," a baby brother looked on in big-eyed wonder, and beautiful faith in the dear little dimpled darling, who had never seen a Christmas before, smiled and cooed in her own sweet baby way.

The evening was passed in children's games, merry laughter and enjoyment of refreshments beautifully and generously served from a handsomely decorated table. Under the potent swing of "Santa Claus" beneath the dazzling lights of the Christmas tree, the happy children, the childhood of adults is renewed, we all grow young. The birth of the Christ-child lifts up into regions ideal and divine.

WILLS PROMOTED.—The will of the late G. A. Appich was admitted to probate this morning. The deceased left his property to his widow, Mrs. Annie M. Appich, and at her death it is to be divided equally among his children.

The deceased appointed his widow executrix and guardian of his children, and this morning she qualified and gave bond in the sum of $20,000 without surety. The will was dated December 16, 1898.

The will of the late Anthony W. Armstrong, drawn January 1, 1901, was also admitted to probate today. The deceased left each of his sisters $200 and divided the remainder of his estate equally between his wife and two children. He appointed his widow, Mrs. Jessie B. Armstrong, as executrix, and this morning she qualified by giving bond in the sum of $25,000 without surety.

THE RIVER.—Affairs on the river have undergone no particular change during the past few days, the ice blockage having been completely broken and there is now no impediment to navigation. The ferry boats between this city and Washington will resume their regular trips Monday. The steamer Norfolk arrived up on time this morning. She reported passing a tow of coal barges in the river bound for this port.

The Newport News went on the route last night, the Washington having carried an excursion party to Newport News to witness the launching of the battleship Missouri which took place there today.

BEFORE TAKING their annual inventory I. Schwarz & Son, 518 King street, have made a general mark down of one-third of the regular prices on all their winter goods. Act wisely and don't let the chance pass.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Six lodgers were at the station house last night.

The weather today has been threatening with occasional light rain.

Two of the Columbia engine horses are in a critical condition, and it is thought it will be necessary to kill both.

The funeral of the late Elijah Benson, whose death occurred last Wednesday night, took place at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Mary's Church.

The Washington ferry boat will resume their regular schedules between this city and Washington Monday, the first boat leaving here at 5:50 a. m., and the first from Washington at 6:10 a. m.

The members of the Alexandria Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, last night held a meeting and appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions in memory of the late
